Mt. PLEASANT, IOWA, September 9, 1893.

Opening.

The Conference was called to order at 10:30 a. m. by Bishop Mallalieu. The minutes of the afternoon session of yesterday were read and approved.

Dr. S. A. Keen.

Dr. S. A. Keen addressed the Conference in regard to his Pentecostal Readings, published in Divine Life.

Dr. M. S. Hard.

Dr. M. S. Hard addressed the Conference in regard to Church Extension interests.

Mrs. E. H. Slocum.

Mrs. E. H. Slocum, Secretary of the Iowa Sabbath Association, was introduced, and spoke briefly in regard to the work of that association.

The 11th question was taken up, and Peter D. Davisson, Harry B. Scoles and Arthur E. Thornley, being properly recommended and having passed a satisfactory examination, were elected as Local Deacons. 11th question.

The memorial service was made the order of the day for Monday, at 2 P. M. Memorial service.

On motion of D. Murphy the report on Bluff Park was taken up and adopted. Report on Bluff Park.

D. Murphy was appointed to take charge of the papers in the case of I. A. Bradrick, and to represent the church in the case before the Committee on Conference Relations. Case of I. A. Bradrick.

The time of the session was extended. Time extended

The Committees on the State of the Church, on the Women's Foreign Missionary Society, on the State of the Country and on the Bible Cause, reported, and the reports were adopted. Committees reported.

The Committee on Books and Periodicals reported, and the report was laid on the table for the present. Report laid over.

Announcements were made, and the Conference adjourned with the doxology, and the benediction by J. B. Hardy. Adjournment.

SUNDAY SERVICES.

The Pentecostal services from 8 to 9 A. M were led by Rev. S. A. Keen, D. D., Conference Evangelist, of the Cincinnati Conference.

J. T. Simmons led the Conference Lovefeast, during which the old time custom was observed of passing the bread and water. The testimonies were rich and helpful, seventy-six bearing testimony for Christ.

At 10:30 Rev. Manly S. Hard, D. D., of the Church Extension Society, announced hymn 180,

"He leadeth me, O blessed thought," followed with prayer by Michael See. J. B. Hardy read the 23d Psalm for the Scripture lesson. Three stanzas of hymn 133,

"How firm a foundation, ye saints of the Lord,"

was sung, when Bishop W. F. Mallalieu, D. D., took for his text Phillipians 3:8, "Yea, doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord." His sermon was one full of power and the Holy Ghost.

At the close of the sermon, C. L. Stafford, Conference Secretary, presented the following persons to Bishop Mallalieu, for ordination as deacons: C. Reynolds Zimmerman, Marion A. Meagher, Frank C. Maxwell, Wesley M. Erskine, William H. Heppe, Peter D. Davisson, Harry B. Scoles, Arthur E. Thornley.

AFTERNOON SERVICE.

Rev. I. O. Kemble led the opening exercises at 3 o'clock, following which the Conference Secretary presented the following persons, who were ordained Elders by Bishop Mallalieu: Alexander C. Boyd, Thomas Osborn, Felix H. Pickworth, George B. Swartz, Andrew M. Smith, Arthur B. Hightshoe, John Bridges, Richard Breedon, James J. Beckham, Charles N. Curtis. The Bishop was assisted in the service by Michael See and the Presiding Elders.

S. A. Keen followed the ordination exercises with the Pentecostal services, using as a theme "Pentecostal Revivals," and St. John 16:8, "And when He (the Comforter) is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and righteousness and of judgment," as his text.

SUNDAY EVENING.

From 7 to 8 p. m. S. A. Keen led the Epworth League's praise service, following this at 8 o'clock with a sermon from the text, "Seek ye the Lord," Isaiah 55:6. Many were at the altar during the day, seeking either pardon or the baptism of the Holy Ghost; over fifty persons bowed at the altar during the evening service.

By invitation the other churches of the city were supplied during the day by members of the Conference and visiting brethren.

FIFTH DAY.

Mt. PLEASANT, IOWA, September 11, 1893

Opening.

At 9 o'clock Bishop Mallalieu took the chair. Prayer was offered by W. F. Mair. The minutes of Saturday's session were read and approved.

H. C. Millice introduced the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Conference be instructed to prepare a suitable record of the Sabbath services, to be inserted in its appropriate place in the journal, following the proceedings of Saturday.

Semi-Centen-nial.

On motion of D. Murphy, Rev. John Burgess was invited to preach a semi-centennial sermon at the next session of the Conference, and the Committee on Public Worship was instructed to arrange therefor.

Transfers.

The transfer of W. H. Heppe, a probationer from the St. Louis German Conference, and of W. H. Mahaffie, an elder, from the Puget Sound Conference, was announced by the Bishop, and certificates were filed with the Secretary.

Certificate of Ordination.

The following certificate of ordination was filed by the Bishop:

This Certifies, That at Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, on Sunday, September 10, 1893, the following persons were ordained Deacons, by the undersigned, viz: C. Reynolds Zimmerman, Marion A. Meagher, Frank C. Maxwell, Wesley M. Erskine, Wm. H. Heppe, Peter D. Davisson, Harry B. Scoles, Arthur E. Thornley; and the following persons were ordained Elders, by the undersigned, assisted by several Elders, viz: Alexander C. Boyd, Thomas Osborn, Felix H. Pickworth, Geo. B. Swartz, Andrew M. Smith, Arthur B. Hightshoe, John Bridges, Richard Breeden, James J. Beckham and Chas. N. Curtis.

Given under my hand this 11th day of September, 1893.

W. F. MALLALIEU.

The order of the day—the report on the Sustentation of Superannuates—was taken up. An amendment was offered by W. F. Cowles, to change the percentage in the second section 60 and 40 per cent. A. V. Kendrick moved to amend by substituting 75 and 25 per cent, which amendment was adopted, and the report as amended was adopted.

Order of the day.

The Committee on Education presented their report. Senator Harlan was invited to address the Conference, and responded briefly. The report was amended by striking out the nominations for Trustees; and also by the adoption of a resolution, offered by E. C. Brooks, approving the action of the Trustees and Faculty in offering free tuition for a year to honor pupils of the High Schools of the State; and the report was adopted.

Report on education.

A motion to fix the first Sabbath in May as Veterans' Day was laid on the table.

Motion tabled.

The Conference Treasurer filed vouchers for the sum of $26,055.

Vouchers filed

The 23d question was taken up, and the following were represented and continued as superannuates: Harrison Runyon, James Haynes, E. W. Twining, A. W. Stryker, John Burgess, J. G. Thompson, J. B. Hardy, A. Robinson, J. T. Coleman, G. H. Clark, E. H. Waring, Jesse Craig, O. C. Shelton, M. See, S. H. Thomas and O. P. Light.

23d question.

The case of I. A. Bradrick was referred to the Presiding Elder of the Keokuk District for investigation.

Case of I. A. Bradrick.

Latimer, T. E. Corkhill, C. S. H. Dunn, D. C. Bevan, G. F. Cannom and F. R. Holcomb. W. F. Cowles was made superannuate; W. N. Hall, C. N. Curtis and J. G. Barton were made effective. The case of W. C. Shippen was referred to a committee of five for investigation, and report at the next session of the Conference. T. E. Corkhill, E. L. Schreiner, T. J. Myers, W. R. Stryker and D. C. Smith were appointed such committee.

22d question.

The following resolution, offered by W. G. Wilson, was adopted:

Resolved, That the Board of Stewards be instructed to report to this Conference the force and limitations of the resolution in the plan adopted for the "Sustentation of Superannuates," requiring five dollars from all members of the Conference that are not superannuates.

Stewards instructed.

The Stewards presented their report, which was adopted, and the funds were distributed as they recommended.

Report of Stewards.

J. C. Kendrick was instructed to pass papers in the case of I. A. Bradrick to T. J. Myers.

On motion of E. L. Schreiner an order was drawn on the Treasurer of the Conference Fund for $28.00, in favor of the Secretary of the Board of Stewards.

The Rev. Joseph Odgers, superintendent of Wesley Hospital, Chicago, was introduced, and addressed the Conference in regard to that institution. On motion of J. C. W. Coxe a committee of three on hospital work was appointed, consisting of W. G. Thorn, E. J. Pike and D. C. Smith.

A special session of the Conference was ordered for 2 P. M.

The following resolution, offered by D. Murphy, was adopted :

WHEREAS, Romanism as a political power is stealthily moving to control this nation and overthrow many of its cherished institutions ; and

WHEREAS, These clandestine and jesuitical purposes and movements should pass under the search-light of investigation ; therefore

Resolved, That a sermon on this subject should be preached at our next session, and that the Bishop, by the advice of the Cabinet, appoint a brother to do this work.

D. MURPHY,
F. W. ADAMS.

On the nomination of the Secretary J. C. Willits was elected an assistant secretary.

The Conference adjourned with the doxology, and the benediction by Brother Odgers.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Conference was called to order at 2 P. M., J. B. Hardy, by appointment of the Bishop, in the chair. Devotional services were conducted by U. B. Smith.

The minutes of the morning session were read and approved.

The order of the day was taken up, and the memoirs of Mrs. Louisa Dunlavy, Rev. John Orr, Rev. Geo. N. Power, D. D., Mrs. Mary Ann Holtzinger, Mrs. Martha A. Schreiner, Rev. Samuel C. Smith and Rev. J. W. McDonald, D. D., were read by the Secretary.

A hymn was sung, and prayer was offered by A. V. Kendrick. Remarks were made by John Burgess, W. G. Wilson, A. E. Buriff, U. B. Smith, E. H. Waring, C. W. Powelson, C. L. Stafford, W. G. Thorn, D. C. Smith, A. V. Kendrick, John Potter, H. C. Millice, J. B. Hardy, J. B. Hill, J. W. Hackley and G. W. Byrkit. The report of the committee was adopted by a rising vote.

The following resolution was adopted, on motion of C. L. Stafford :

Resolved, That E. H. Waring be, and he is hereby, requested to prepare for insertion in the published minutes of the session a suitable memorandum of the Jubilee services of the Conference and University.

E. H. WARING,
J. B. HILL.

The report of the committee appointed to canvass for subscriptions to the Conference minutes was received and filed.

On motion the Bishop was requested to appoint E. C. Brooks to preach the missionary sermon next year,

C. L. Stafford moved that the publishing agent be instructed to publish an edition of 2,000 copies of the minutes, to be distributed on the basis of membership, the preachers to pay for the same within thirty days after receiving the minutes.

A motion to lay the whole subject on the table for the present prevailed.

On motion of E. C. Brooks the report on books and periodicals was taken from the table.

The report was amended by striking out the last resolution, and as thus amended was adopted.

It was ordered that when the Conference adjourn it be to meet at 7:30 o'clock.

On motion the Conference adjourned, with the doxology and the benediction by O. C. Shelton.

EVENING SESSION.

Conference met at 7:30 p. m., Bishop Mallalieu in the chair. After singing, and prayer by A. V. Kendrick, the minutes of the afternoon session were read, amended and approved.

A list of officers of the Conference Missionary Society was presented and approved.

The Secretaries were authorized to edit the reports for publication in the minutes

The Presiding Elders were instructed to nominate the Standing Committees for the next session.

The election of Trustees for the Iowa Wesleyan University was taken up, and the Secretary of the Conference was authorized to cast the ballot of the Conference for D. C. Smith, James Harlan, W. I. Babb, Mrs. L. W. Byrkit, J. E. Corley, and E. L. Schreiner, who were elected for the term of four years.

In filling vacancies in the other classes it was ordered that the two persons having the highest number of votes be declared elected; the one having the highest number of votes to be the successor of Dr. McDonald, and the other to be the successor of Dr. Power.

The Conference Treasurer presented his report by Districts, which was adopted.

Reports on Sabbath Observance, Wesley Hospital, of Visitors to the I. W. U., on Bluff Park (providing for the election of Trustees), were presented and adopted.

The tellers reported the result of the ballot for Trustees, as follows:	Ballot for Trustees.

REPORTS OF PRESIDING ELDERS.

KEOKUK DISTRICT.

With a few exceptions the preachers and their families have enjoyed the best of health.

It is with a feeling of sadness and a sense of great loss that I record the death of my worthy predecessor and esteemed brother, Dr. G. N. Power, who has been called away from the activities of an itinerant life to the reward and glory of the triumphant church. The end of the life and work of our dear brother was reached the 26th of October, 1892.

The home of Bro. Schreiner has been saddened in the death of his estimable and beloved wife, who reached coronation, December 29, 1892

Brother and Sister Robinson are bereaved in the death of their only child. After a brief sickness our heavenly Father in his loving wisdom freed his innocent life from the sufferings, temptations and sins of an evil world.

The wife of Bro. G. W. Barber for months has been a great sufferer, and at the home of her mother in Bonaparte has been lying in a critical state, at times rallying and then prostrate. She has in all of these weary months been wonderfully sustained by an Almighty arm, and we trust that she may be brought back to perfect health and usefulness in the house and the church.

PASTORAL CHARGES.

The death of Dr. Power left First Church, Keokuk, with a vacant pulpit, and the congregation without a pastor. By mutual consent of P. E. Hughes, the pastor, and quarterly Conference, Bro. G. M. Tuttle was transferred from the Sonora charge to this church, and was most cordially received, has been abundant in labors and every way acceptable. The Fairfield Circuit has been supplied since October by W. L. Baker, who has done a good work.

Frederick White, the pastor of our colored congregation at Pittsfield, Ill., was transferred last spring by Bishop Fowler, to the Central Missouri Conference, and Bro. Herrington has been supplying the charge.

REVIVALS.

The spiritual interests have, I think, more than kept pace with the social and material. There have been conversions in almost all the churches, while on some of the charges there have been glorious and generous outpourings of God's spirit. The results in the number of conversions and accessions to the church are not large. The increase to the membership as reported to me is about four hundred.

CHURCH AND PARSONAGE IMPROVEMENTS

We have had some substantial advance in the way of parsonage and church improvement and building. Four neat and commodious country chapels have been built. Our Birmingham people lost their church building by fire on the 3d of April. The pastor, J. Ferguson, with commendable wisdom and zeal, while the old building was still burning, began soliciting subscriptions for a new church, and within a few days received in good subscriptions about $1,300, which with an equal amount of insurance money fixed the new enterprise. Plans of a building, modern in style, neat and commodious, were adopted, and the building is now nearly ready for occupancy.

Centerville parsonage has been fully and nicely finished at a cost of $4,000. Bro. Handy has been able to build a six-room house at Mystic. Bro. Pool, by his own labor, and his own expense, has doubled the capacity and added greatly to the convenience of the Drakeville house. The brothers on the Bloomfield circuit are building a good home at West Grove. Bro. Tenant has just finished at a cost of $1,200 a parsonage at Moulton, and leaves at the end of five years an inviting field and home for his successor. Bro. Doud and the brethren at Libertyville are well on the way in the work of finishing a good house for that newly organized circuit. Bro. Baker succeeded in harmonizing the brethren on the question of the location of the parsonage, and a good comfortable property has been secured for the Fairfield circuit at Salina, at a cost of $600.

Improvements and repairs have been made at various other charges, so that the year has witnessed a fair, natural growth. Parsonages are needed and are contemplated for Exline, Mt. Sterling, Eldon and Fairfield.

EPWORTH LEAGUES.

We have in all about eighteen flourishing Leagues, which are doing good work.

The Annual District Convention was held in May, at Eldon, and was in every way a profitable session.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

The number of the Sunday Schools will be about as last year. They are maintaining well their place and doing a good service for the present and future church. We made special effort to have all our schools observe Easter Sabbath as missionary day, and it was quite generally observed.

CHILDREN'S DAY.

It was quite generally observed, and I think we shall have something of an increase to the Educational Fund.

CHURCH PERIODICALS.

The Epworth Herald is growing in favor with our young people and is doing much to create a taste for religious reading. The missionary and Sunday School periodicals are also having a generous patronage. In a few of our churches an effort has been made this year to build up a Sunday School and congregational library, a thing much to be desired and commended.

MINISTERIAL SUPPORT.

The statistical tables will show a small advance in the aggregate on the claims for Ministerial Support. But I fear the column of receipts will show a decrease as compared with last year. This is to be accounted for in the main by reason of the condition of the country financially. A few of our churches are embarrassed because of close times.

Special mention should here be made of First Church, Keokuk. The membership of this church is principally from the laboring classes, many of whom have been employed in the railroad shops. In the removal of the shops this spring many were thrown out of employment, and therefore were not able to help themselves, much less the church. As a result our First Church people find themselves in a straitened condition. With a debt of fifteen hundred dollars and no resources with which to meet it, they are compelled to ask help of their brethren and friends abroad. A plan has been agreed upon that will be brought to your notice in due time, and I here commend it to your consideration and co-operation.

The claims of the preachers are not large on Keokuk District. The smallest salary is three hundred dollars; the largest is thirteen hundred. The average is seven hundred and twenty-five. We are sorry to report some deficiencies on these salaries.

BENEVOLENCES.

Our motto has been "No blanks in the Benevolent Collections." In some of the churches there is a considerable increase in the amount raised for the Missionary Society, others report a decrease, and this is true where it seems unnecessary. The exact results will be shown in the reports of the several charges.

T. J. MYERS.

MUSCATINE DISTRICT.

God has mercifully spared the lives of all the pastors for another year. H. E. Wing, P. C., of Washington, took a transfer shortly after Conference, and J. A. Boatman was appointed by the Bishop to fill his place. P. H. McBeth was appointed to supply Blue Grass, but ill health compelled him to resign. E. E. Simpson and J. D. Richards supplied the work until the 1st of May, when C. E. Coggeshall took charge and completed the year. Sister D. S. Dunlavy passed triumphantly to her reward shortly after Conference. Her beautiful christian character endeared her to all who knew her.

The three camp meetings and numerous revival efforts throughout the district resulted in many sanctifications and eight hundred reported conversions.

The E. L. is receiving much attention and its influence largely felt in most of the charges. The P. C. who does not prepare for leadership in this department will find himself side-tracked in the near future.

The fall District Conference was held in three localities (West Liberty, Kalona and Marengo), by adjourning sessions, resulting in the presence of three times the usual number of laymen, and also in giving a fresh spiritual impetus to three communities. The experiment is worth repeating, and is already planned for another year. The second District Conference was held on the district camp ground at the beginning of the camp meeting. This combination was a mutual help to both conference and camp meeting.

The P. E. insists upon written reports from the various officers to the Quarterly Conference. While the success is only partial he is pressing towards the goal, feeling assured that such a consummation will give character to the quarterly meeting and add greatly to the aggressive power of the church.

No new churches have been built this year, but a considerable sum has been spent in repairs and improvements; the larger amounts at Victor ($800) and First Church, Muscatine ($12,000). Two parsonages have been built (Oxford and Williamsburg), each being worth about $1,500.

In view of the financial stringency it is very gratifying to be able to report an aggregate increase on the benevolences. We are aiming at systematic beneficence, but realize that much labor and patience will have to precede uniform success. It is, however, very encouraging to know that the number of systematic givers is increasing. The pastors must, both by precept and example, pave the way to ultimate success.

With gratitude to God and thanks for the forbearance of those I serve, this report is respectfully submitted

IRAO. KEMBLE.

OSKALOOSA DISTRICT.

All the charges in the Oskaloosa District were supplied by members of the Conference, appointed at our last session, except Wesley Church, Oskaloosa, and Delta. Bishop Andrews, by request, changed W. E. Wilson from Ottumwa Mission to Wesley Church. J. G. G. Cavendish served Delta very acceptably until he was suddenly removed to his heavenly home. We then secured for this charge U. S. Wilkinson, a graduate at Cornell College.

A number of changes were made after the session of Conference. Bishop Andrews removed J. A. Boatman from Brooklyn to Washington, and we changed R. L. Patterson from What Cheer to Brooklyn. J. J. Beckham, of the St. Louis Conference, served What Cheer the remaining part of the year. After the death of Dr. Power, G. M. Tuttle was changed from Sonora to Keokuk, and placed at First Church. We changed G. W. Younkin from Reasnor to Sonora, and P. D. Davisson served Reasnor to the close of the year.

The District Convention of the Epworth League, held in Grinnell, was successful, and the report indicated that the most of the local leagues were doing excellent work. From the reports of the various Sabbath School Superintendents to the fourth quarterly conferences, we learn that the Sunday Schools in the District are in a prosperous condition, and that our own literature is being used almost exclusively.

Much has been done during the year in repairing churches and parsonages, but a full detail of these we cannot give, and will only mention some of the more important improvements. The parsonage at Deep River, which was commenced last year, was completed early in the year. Extensive repairs were made on the church at Montezuma, at an aggregate cost of about $1,500.

First Church, Oskaloosa, has procured a furnace and made other improvements, which have helped the appearance and comfort of the church. Provision has been made to pay the indebtedness of the repairs on the What Cheer church, and also to pay an old debt of several years standing on the parsonage. A lot has been purchased adjoining the Grinnell church, on which to build a new church in the near future. At Simpson Church, Oskaloosa, new chairs have been purchased for the lecture room, and a new carpet put in it at a cost of something over three hundred dollars. The Delta church has been improved and a new bell procured.

The pastors have labored faithfully and successfully, and have looked after all the interests of the church. Special attention has been given to the benevolent collections.

There has been more or less revival influence in nearly all the charges in the District, and about nine hundred souls have been converted and quite a number have entered into experience of perfect love.

The number of subscribers to our periodicals will be considerably in advance of last year, but there is room for much greater advancement in this direction. Many of our families take several secular papers and do not take even one religious paper. This ought not so to be.

In the beginning of the year the amount the District was apportioned for the Iowa Wesleyan University was distributed among the various charges, and the pastors have made more than ordinary effort to increase the contributions, and we are hoping for considerable advance over last year; but the aggregate amount will be far below what it should be. However, we believe that the University is constantly increasing its hold upon our people, notwithstanding there are four other colleges under the control of other denominations within the bounds of the District.

T. B. HUGHES, P. E.

OTTUMWA DISTRICT.

That which under ordinary circumstances would be a pleasant duty, at this time becomes one of sorrow and sadness.

Rev. J. W. McDonald, D. D., who for about twenty-seven years was an active and honored member of this Conference, filling many of its most important charges with great efficiency and acceptability to the people, was by the last session of this Conference, appointed for the fifth year to the Ottumwa District.

Owing to the excessive labor required in meeting the demands of this large district, and exposure to the severe storms and cold of the past winter, his health gave way; yet he continued to labor on, unwilling to give up, until the final summons came, and after being confined to his room only a few days he quietly passed to the rest that remained to the people of God.

On the 15th day of June, by the appointment of Bishop Mallalieu, I took up the unfinished work of the district, and was delighted to find the pastors and their families in the various charges in the enjoyment of good health, and busily at work with a good degree of prosperity and success attending their labors, and that an excellent state of religious feeling prevailed everywhere. The brethren on the several charges have worked faithfully, and the Lord has blessed their labors and given them many souls for their hire. All the charges have had more or less revivals, as their reports will show. The Sunday Schools also are in a flourishing condition, and Epworth Leagues have been organized in most of the charges and a commendable degree of zeal and interest is manifested among them.

Thus, while the brethren have kept prominently before their minds the great object of their mission, to-wit: the salvation of souls, and have led many into the kingdom, who are to-day returning to Mount Zion with songs and everlasting joy upon their heads; yet they have not forgotten the temporalities of the church, but have been abundant in labors in this direction also, and will doubtless report an advance over the report of last year, notwithstanding the stringency in money matters.

Thus in many of the charges new church buildings have been erected or are now in process of erection, old ones have been repaired, debts of long standing have been canceled, and there has been an upward movement all along the line. The new churches being built are—one at Brighton, an elegant structure, under the supervision of the pastor, W. E. Patterson, who is also the architect of the building; another at Pleasant Plain, where until recently we had no organization. This is under the supervision of Bro. Vanschoiack; another is at Durham, under the supervision of Bro. Jones. On the Blakesburg charge, Bro. Green, pastor, there are three new churches in process of erection.

PARSONAGES.

In Eddyville, where for many years we have been without a parsonage, Bro. Coughlan, the pastor, is now having a new one built.

Bro. Vanschoiack, of Richland, has disposed of the old parsonage and has procured a beautiful and substantial building and grounds, free from debt, in one of the pleasantest parts of the town.

Bro. Pike, of Agency City, has had a new and elegant parsonage built, which is located just across the street from the church, and is also out of debt.

The benevolences of the church have also been attended to, notwithstanding the severe stringency of the money market, and we will, perhaps, be fully up to the last year's report, if not, indeed, beyond it.

In conclusion, I would say that the Lord has been with the brethren on the Ottumwa District, and has blessed their labors abundantly.

BIBLE CAUSE.

There seems to be a very general failure on the part of our membership to appreciate the importance of an organized agency for putting the Bible into the hands of those who need it, and would not otherwise obtain it; the value of the assistance rendered by the American Bible Society to the evangelizing efforts of the churches, both at home and abroad; and its present pressing needs. We feel that it is the duty of pastors to inform themselves in regard to this matter, to lay the information before the people, and to use their best endeavors to enlist the sympathies of the membership and raise the apportionments for this worthy cause.

HENRY C. ETHELL, President,
DANIEL PHILLIPS, Secretary.

BLUFF PARK.

Your committee on Bluff Park find that by the death of Rev. G. N. Power, D. D., and J. M. Anderson, M. D., two vacancies have occurred in the class of 1894, and would recommend that said vacancies be filled by the election of Revs. S. C. Bronson and Geo. B. Swartz. And that the vacancies caused by the expiration of time be filled by election of Revs. T. J. Myers, W. S. Gardner, C. L. Stafford and W. E. Patterson, and Messrs. O. E. King and T. B. Dorsey, M. D. We would farther recommend that Rev. T. E. Corkhill be appointed General Superintendent by our Presiding Bishop; and that Geo. W. Pool be elected vice C. L. Tenant, resigned.

W. E. PATTERSON, Secretary.

REPORT BLUFF PARK CAMP GROUND.

WHEREAS, The assembly grounds known as Bluff Park, and under the control of this Conference, has become embarrassed by debt; and

WHEREAS, The principal creditors are anxious that the Conference should still hold control of said grounds, and carry on their meetings from year to year, and have very generously proposed a compromise, and are willing to aid in freeing the grounds from debt by reducing their claims one-half, or in other words, taking in full satisfaction of their claims fifty cents on the dollar; therefore

Resolved 1st, That this Conference deeply sympathizes with the creditors, and extend to them their hearty thanks for their generous offer, which is hereby accepted;

Resolved 2d, That we will do all that we can consistently to encourage the raising of the amount necessary to meet this proposition of the creditors, and cancel the liability of the most beautiful assembly grounds in the valley of the Mississippi;

Resolved 3d, That we request the Bishop to appoint Rev. T. E. Corkhill superintendent, and that we will kindly receive him, and aid him as far as we are able in raising this debt.

D. MURPHY, President Bluff Park Trustees,
THOS. E. CORKHILL, Supt. Bluff Park.

BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

1. The Book Concern is the common property of the church, having for its end the circulation of a pure literature, and the support of one of the most thrifty interests of the church.

2. We rejoice in the fact of the continued success of this great enterprise, by which increasing dividends are being given to our Conference, for the benefit of our needy veterans.

3. We recognize the fact that we, as Methodist pastors, are the authorized agents for our books and periodicals we will heartily co-operate with the general agents in their efforts to place our publications in all our Sunday Schools, and in the homes of our people.

4. We recognize in the Epworth Herald the best and cheapest young people's paper published, and rejoice in its large and increasing circulation.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

Your committee on Church Extension report that, upon an examination of the work done by the Church Extension Society, we find that this society is well worthy of our support and encouragement; that our Conference has been fairly treated in the matter of loans and donations; that we urge our preachers to present the claims of this society in such a manner as will give our members a thorough knowledge of its benevolent work, to the end that our collections may be brought up to our apportionment; that we call the attention of the Board of Church Extension to the frequency of appeals coming to us from local churches, signed by Bishops and General Conference officers, that are perplexing and embarrassing to the true aim of this society.

COMMITTEE.

DEACONESES.

Methodism means "Christianity in earnest."

Its policy has ever been to use all means to save all men.

In accordance with its evangelizing genius it has in recent years opened up a large field of usefulness for woman by establishing homes and schools for the training of Deaconesses.

The work of these servants of the Most High has become almost indispensable to every active Christian Church in a large city.

Therefore we recommend it to every pastor, 1st, to study this movement and to keep posted on its progress, in order that he may find employment for all the valuable talent which is so often unused in most churches; 2d, to explain in public the opportunities and methods of this work, and to furnish special information to such persons in his community as he may be able to interest in it.

Respectfully submitted,

R. G. WILSON, Chairman,
C. N. CURTIS, Secretary.

EDUCATION.

Your Committee on Education beg leave to report as follows:

WHEREAS, Our church has always recognized the necessity laid upon her of being a leader in the cause of education, and

WHEREAS, We recognize the necessity, which many times exists, of rendering assistance to young people whom God has called into the special work of the ministry, and those preparing to enter the mission fields; and

WHEREAS, The enterprise set on foot in connection with our own Conference, the erection of the new Chapel and Science Hall, has in this our semi-centennial jubilee year been brought to a successful completion: therefore Resolved 1st, That we urge careful attention to, and strict compliance with the requirements of our book of discipline in regard to observance of Children's Day.

Resolved 2d, That we gratefully record our appreciation of the valuable services rendered to the Iowa Wesleyan University by the Rev. Dr. Stafford, its President, and his associates in the faculty.

Resolved 3d, That we rejoice in the completion of the new Chapel and Science Hall building, and while thankful for all the gifts received thus far we urge that the work of raising money to free the building from debt be immediately pressed, and to the end of aiding all in our power for the purpose of raising the money needed, we as pastors pledge ourselves to give Dr. Stafford a hearty welcome to our charges, and to co-operate with him in his efforts.

Resolved 4th, We recommend the importance of taking steps towards raising funds for the building of a Ladies' Dormitory, and in view of the fact that the list to this end has already been headed with a liberal subscription we pledge ourselves to give all possible encouragement and help in this direction, and especially to recommend the movement set on foot at the last Conference Epworth League Convention, looking to the interest of the Epworthians in this enterprise.

Resolved 5th, We pledge ourselves as pastors to use our utmost efforts to direct the young people of our charges interested in securing an education, to the Iowa Wesleyan University.

We would nominate the following as visitors to the various educational institutions:

Iowa Wesleyan University—Ministers J. G. Barton, J. W. Fraker, R. Weese and E. S. Daly.

Laymen—O. W. Weyer, C. P. Axtell, Joseph Keck, Charles Baumer and Frank Bacon.

Garrett Biblical Institute—J. W. Hackley and W. N. Groome.

De Pauw School of Theology—W. R. Stryker and P. J. Henness.

To preach Educational Sermon—E. J. Pike.

W. N. GROOME, Chairman,
J. W. HACKLEY, Secretary.

ADDITIONAL EDUCATIONAL REPORT.

Resolved, That we approve the action of the faculty, recommended by the Trustees, authorizing our pastors to offer one year's tuition in the Iowa Wesleyan University each year, to the pupils graduating from our respective High Schools with the honors of their class.

We also recommend that the Conference raise the sum of $2,500, by collection in the churches, for the University's current expenses.

COMMITTEE.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF I. W. U.

TO THE IOWA ANNUAL CONFERENCE :

As Secretary of the Board of Trustees of our Conference School—the Iowa Wesleyan University—I herewith submit the thirty-ninth annual report.

By this year's catalogue there was an enrollment of 397, as against 396 last year.

Of this number 304 belong to the college proper, and 93 to the several departments of art, and are not pursuing regular collegiate work.

The 304 literary students and pupils are distributed as follows: as to sex, 177 young men and boys, and 127 young women and girls.

In the four college classes there are 97 in all, or 57 men and 40 women. Of these 63 are pursuing the classical, and 34 the scientific course.

In the regular preparatory classes there are 133, and 56 returned as unclassified; some of whom are irregular, and by making up some deficiency will fall into one or other of the regular classes in the future;

The senior class numbered 19. Of these 11 are men and 8 women; 10 are classical and 9 scientific. Of the men one is now a member of Conference. How many of the young women will become ultimately connected with Conference workers is yet an open question; but, doubtless, the question has been put, and is now under advisement.

The endowment fund remains practically unchanged; indeed it seems possessed of the attribute of immutability—at a total, $64,747.87. The only apparent change in this fund is the acquisition, by bequest, of the late Rev. G. N. Power of a part of his estate. The exact amount to be received is not yet definitely known, and 5 per cent. per annum must be paid to the heir of Bro. Power through life, and he is yet a young man. The income and expense vary but little from last year. The excess of expenses over income is $700.

At the close of last year Prof. Walters resigned, and Prof. Heppe decided to enter the pastorate.

The faculty the coming year will stand as follows:

C. L. Stafford, President.

C. M. Grumbling, Prof. of Natural Science.

Miss E. S. Nicholson, Prof. of English Literature and History.

F. W. Adams, Prof. of Greek.

Miss M. J. Edmond, Prof. of Latin.

U. G. McAlexander, Prof. of Mathematics.

W. H. Mahaffie, Principal Professor and Normal Superintendent.

Provision for instruction in music, painting, elocution and military science remains unchanged.

At its last session the board created the chair of "Classical literature and fine art." and elected Mrs. Belle A. Mansfield to occupy the same, beginning with the scholastic year of 1894-5. Mrs. Mansfield has not yet signified her acceptance.

For a long time a woman's dormitory and boarding hall have been greatly desired, and at the June meeting last of the board the matter began to take definite and tangible shape. About $2,500 were subscribed, looking to the joint purpose of liquidating indebtedness on the new chapel and the erection of the proposed woman's building. As the indebtedness remaining on the new building is at least $8,000 in excess of assets, it will require about $30,000 to cancel the debt and have such a building as our necessities demand.

In addition to the cash to be derived from the bequest of Bro. Power, the library of the University received several hundred volumes, of greater or less value, from his library.

Two members of the Board of Trustees have died during the year. As already indicated one of them was our long-time Conference Secretary, G. N. Power, who at his death was pastor of First Church, Keokuk. The other, J. W. McDonald, who was closing his fifth year as Presiding Elder of the Ottumwa district. The latter was one of the early graduates of the University, and both have been connected therewith for more than a quarter of a century. That they were held in high esteem their honors and their work attest, and their absence will long be felt at our annual gatherings. Their death leaves a vacancy each in the 1st and 3d class of trustees, while the term of the fourth class expires with this conference year. This class contains the following names: D. C. Smith, Jas. Harlan, W. I. Babb, E. L. Schreiner, Mrs. L. W. Byrkit and J. E. Corley. Mrs. Byrkit is the alumnal representative in the 4th class, and is recommended to the Conference by the Alumni for election.

Respectfully submitted, J. E. CORLEY, Secretary.

EPISCOPAL FUND.

Most of the charges have paid this claim in full; others have paid the pro rata, and the committee have endeavored to see the pastor of each delinquent and secure what is lacking: M. A. MEAGHER,

M. A. MEAGHER,
G. W. POOL.
JOHN BRIDGES,
G. F. KELLY.
W. A. JACKSON,
Committee.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

We note with pleasure the growth of the Epworth League as unparalleled in the history of the Christian church, and recognize its organization as the work of Divine providence. We believe that, as Methodists, we should bring our young people together in societies, which are in accord with the great connectional system of our own church, in order that we may the better inculcate a spirit of loyalty to our policy and doctrines; therefore Resolved 1st. That we urge every pastor, who has not already done so, to thus organize the young people of his charge, in order that they may be able to do the most efficient work possible.

Resolved 2d., That we recognize in the Literary Department of the League, especially the "Reading Course" and Bible study, a movement greatly needed among our young people; one which, looking towards both the spiritual and intellectual development of the members, is to be greatly encouraged.

Resolved 3d., That we heartily endorse the idea of utilizing every talent of all the young people of Methodism; that we earnestly recommend every chapter desiring to attain the highest possible usefulness to employ every talent as far as possible to give effect and permanence, not merely to one department alone, but to every department in its order that measure of attention and effort requisite to its highest success.

Resolved 4th., That in the Epworth Herald we recognize a strong ally, and we would congratulate the management on giving us a paper of such high merit, and urge pastors and people to give it hearty support.

THOMAS OSBORN, President.
C. W. WILSON, Secretary.

FREEDMEN'S AID AND SOUTHERN EDUCATION.

TO THE BISHOP AND MEMBERS OF THE IOWA CONFERENCE:

Dear Brethren:—Your committee to whom was referred the above cause, beg leave to report that we have had the same under careful consideration, and submit to you the following report:

WHEREAS, The interests of the government, as well as our obligations as Christians, demand that the masses of the people be educated, and

WHEREAS, There are to-day in our sixteen southern states 1,672,940 whites, and 3,042,435 colored people who cannot write; and the Methodist Episcopal church has 269,372 white and 234,036 colored members in the same territory; and

WHEREAS, Outside of three or four border states the chief hope for Christian education of these people in that section is through this Society, we deem it our duty to look upon and speak of the work of this Society as one of the great agencies in the moral uplift and Christianization of the people, and we therefore commend it more earnestly than ever before to the attention and liberality of our people; and

WHEREAS, The Society has asked the Iowa Conference to raise this year for this cause $2,600; therefore

Resolved, That we as pastors will clearly lay the matter before our people and make early in the year an earnest effort to raise the full apportionment in our several charges for this most worthy cause.

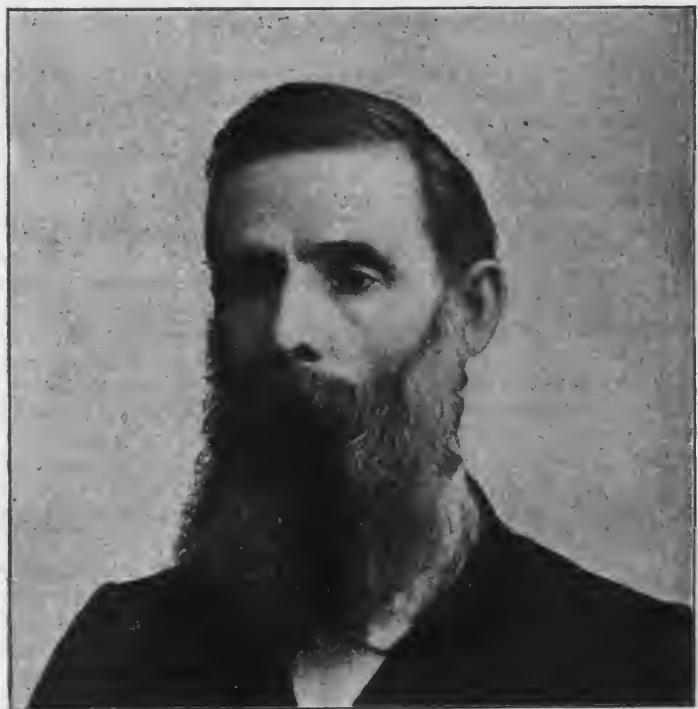

Wm. E. WILSON, Secretary.

MEMOIRS.

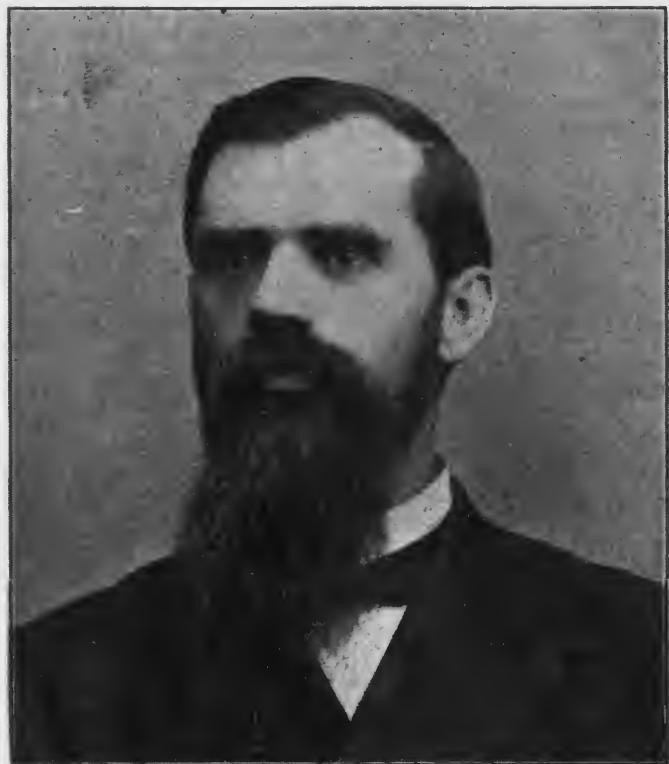

REV. G. N. POWER, D. D.

It is questionable if the Iowa Conference has ever been called upon to mourn more deeply, or with greater cause of sorrow than at this coming together, not merely on account of the number who have been called from our midst, from labor to reward, but also on account of the prominence and of the intimate relation of some of them to the whole body of the Conference. In the case of Dr. G. N. Power, his relation to the Conference for so many years as Secretary of the Conference, in which position we all came to know him and not a few to know him from their first entrance into the Conference and through all the years since as the one in response to whose calling of the Conference roll they answered. It has been almost impossible for us to realize through the year that he would not be with us and call the roll as usual at this session, and only has the reality made itself felt as we waited for the "Sound of the voice that is still" and waited in vain. Little did we think, or he, when one year ago he urged the meeting of the Conference here that we might properly observe the semi-centennial of both the Conference and the University, each of which he loved so ardently, that he would not be here to share in the services when the year would roll round. Only a very little more than a month after Conference he ceased to labor and to live.

George Neal Power, the subject of this memoir, was the eldest son of Rev. John H. Power, D. D., and was born in Portsmouth, Ohio, March 3, 1829, and passed away at Keokuk, Iowa, October 26, 1892. He was converted in early childhood, a fact to which he often referred in giving his religious experience with great satisfaction. He was educated at the Ohio Wesleyan University, and was licensed to preach in Cincinnati, Ohio, in 1853. August 12, 1852, he married Miss Matilda Brown, in Leesburg, Ohio; a woman of rare accomplishments who, after devoting all her married life of over thirty years to the Master's work in this Conference, passed away more than two years before her husband. Dr. Power was admitted on trial in the Iowa Conference in September of 1856. His appointments were first Burris City as it was then known, now a deserted spot on the banks of the Iowa river where it empties into the Mississippi, then West Point, where the writer, then a mere youth, first knew him and made the start in the religious life under his ministry, and where an attachment was formed that lasted to the close of his life. He afterward served the following charges: Dodgeville, Grandview and Kossuth Circuits, Washington, Muscatine, Wilton, Keokuk, Mt. Pleasant, Muscatine (2d time), Marengo and Albia Stations; and as Presiding Elder on the Ottumwa, Muscatine and Keokuk Districts. At the close of his six years on the Keokuk District, he was appointed to the First Church in Keokuk, where he served for one year and had entered upon his second year when he was taken with his last sickness, and after some two weeks of patient suffering quietly fell asleep in Jesus. He had served the Conference as one of the secretaries since 1860, and had been the Secretary since 1876. As Secretary he was painstaking, hardworking and efficient, and in every respect a model Secretary. For more than a quarter of a century he had been intimately associated with the Iowa Wesleyan University as visitor and Trustee. Much of its success is due to his wise councils and profound interest in the University, for which he planned liberal things after he should have passed away, by willing some $10,000 of property and life insurance to the University as an annuity gift, along with his library. The Albion College in the year 1876 conferred upon him the degree of D. D. He several times was chosen to represent his Conference in the session of the General Conference. The writer was called to his bedside on Thursday before his death, and then arranged to spend the Sabbath and fill his pulpit. At the close of the evening service I spent some time with him and as far as he had strength to talk we conversed about the possibilities of his recovery. True to his devoted, untiring spirit of work he expressed himself as anxious to live and work if it should be the Lord's will, but added: "If the Lord wills otherwise, I am ready, for He knows best." When told the following morning that he could live but a few hours he replied that there were a few things relating to business matters that he wanted to fix and then he was ready to go, and exclaimed: "What a blessed thing it is at such a time as this not to have to get ready for both worlds. The other one is all fixed and but little to fix in this one." When it was stated to him that brethren of the District Conference, then in session, were praying for him and had sent him messages of love, he answered, "Tell my brethren that I am

When it was stated to him that brethren of the District Conference, then in session, were praying for him and had sent him messages of love, he answered, "Tell my brethren that I am just waiting my heavenly Father's will and with that I shall be satisfied, as he makes no mistakes." He gave specific direction as to the funeral services, requesting that there should be no ostentation or show about it, but a plain, simple service. The services were held in the First M. E. Church, and were attended by a number of the brethren of the Conference, with the pastors of the different churches in Keokuk and a large congregation of people. The people of his church felt that they were bereaved beyond measure and many were the tears as they looked for the last time at the face and form that they had learned to love as only a faithful servant of Christ may be loved. On the following day the remains were taking to Burlington and laid to rest by the faithful companion who had preceded him but a little before, and near by where rested the remains of the father and mother, all to wait the resurrection morn. On the following Sabbath a beautiful and appropriate memorial service was held in the First Church of Keokuk, under the direction of Dr. Burgess, who had known Dr. Power from boyhood, and again at this memorial service of the Conference we pause in the midst of our work to speak words of tenderness and love in memory of him whose life among us was one of loving service to Christ and His church.

C. L. S.

REV. J. WILBUR McDONALD, D. D.

Rev. J. Wilbur McDonald, D. D., was born in Newcastle, Indiana, March 13, 1834, and died at Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, May 31, 1893. In his father's family there were four sons and three daughters. The family removed in 1836 to Iowa, and settled on a farm in Des Moines county. The parents, being deeply pious, trained their children in the nurture and admonition of the Lord, and at the age of about twelve years Bro. McDonald was converted and joined the church, of which he remained a faithful and honored member. In 1852 he entered as a student the Mt. Pleasant Collegiate Institute, where, after it became the Iowa Wesleyan University, he graduated in 1858, receiving the degree of Bachelor of Arts.

In 1860 he was appointed principal of the Preparatory Department of the University; and having during the interval from 1858 to 1860, completed the regular course of reading in law, on March 13, 1860, he was admitted to the bar of Henry county. In 1862 he was elected to the chair of the Latin and Greek languages and literature in the Iowa Wesleyan University, which place he filled with great acceptability until July 24, 1864. He then resigned his professorship and entered the army as a lieutenant in the 119th United States Colored Infantry. After the close of the war he returned to Mt. Pleasant; but the wranglings of the court-room were out of harmony with his refined nature, and he soon discovered that success in the practice of law was for him impossible.

His two elder brothers had been called to the work of the ministry, and now, believing that God had called him also, he gave up all other pursuits, and in 1866 was admitted on trial in the Iowa Conference. The same year he married Miss Mary Robinson, daughter of Rev. Anthony Robinson, formerly a prominent member of the Indiana Conference, but now a member of the Iowa Conference. Of this union there were born three sons and two daughters, who, together with their now widowed mother, still survive. His ministerial career was a success. His ripe scholarship, his meek and gentle spirit, his deep piety, his unswerving integrity, soon won for him a merited distinction among his brethren, and early in his history he took a front rank in the Conference.

In 1875 the Indiana University (now the De Pauw University) conferred on him the degree of Doctor of Divinity. He was also chosen a delegate to the Ecumenical Conference that met in the city of London, England, and several times represented this Conference in the General Conference. His early life was spent on the farm, where he acquired habits of industry, honesty and economy; his school life, therefore, was marked by diligence, perseverance and success. As a college professor he ranked among the best. As a member of society he was modest, reserved and unassuming, yet his utterances were always characterized by wisdom and prudence, and he was one of the safest of counsellors. As a minister of the gospel he was as one who had a divine message for the people, and he spoke with the demonstration and power of the Holy Ghost.

During the period of his active ministry Bro. McDonald filled several of the most important pulpits of the Conference. Though his health had been declining for several months, yet he continued to labor on, and being the Presiding Elder of the Ottumwa District, he was often compelled to travel in private conveyances to points remote from the railroads; but nevertheless attended his quarterly meetings until within one or two weeks of his death. His last sermon, on "The Empty Tomb," is said to have been among the best of his ministry.

When the final hour arrived, in the full possession of his faculties, he spoke of his brethren in the ministry and the many kindnesses he had received at their hands. Then he spoke of those who had gone before and of his prospect of soon meeting them, saying, "I shall not be a stranger there." Thus passed away one of our most highly honored and beloved fellow laborers, who had held almost every position from that of a private member in the church to the office of a Presiding Elder, and to all of which he had brought honor and dignity. Many of the preachers of his district, together with the Presiding Elders and preachers from the other districts of the Conference, were present at his funeral, the services of which were held in the Asbury Church, Mt. Pleasant, where he had at one time served as pastor. His body was laid away in the Forest Home Cemetery.

THOMAS E. CORKHILL.

REV. SAMUEL C. SMITH.

Rev. Samuel C. Smith was born near West Union, Adams County, Ohio, July 29, 1841, and died at Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, May 22, 1893. He came to Iowa with his parents in 1854, and settled on a farm near Attica, Marion county. At the outbreak of the rebellion he enlisted in company G, 15th Iowa Infantry, and he served his country until the close of the war. He was married to Miss N. J. Voorhies, October 24, 1867. Four of the six children of this union, with the widow, still survive. Bro. Smith united with the church in 1866, under the ministry of Rev. Ira O. Kemble, of this Conference. In 1868 he was appointed class-leader and served as such with great acceptability for eight years. On September 10, 1877, he was appointed as a supply on Searsboro Circuit, having previously received license to preach, and he continued on that work for the next three years. While there the spirit of revival prevailed, and many were added to the church. He was received on trial in the Iowa Conference, and ordained deacon in September, 1879. His succeeding appointments were, Rose Hill, Beacon, What Cheer (each for two years), and Kirkville and Mt. Pleasant Circuits (each for three years). In all of these charges his ministry was greatly blessed, and hundreds are pleased to call him their spiritual father, and in eternity will raise up and call him blessed. At the Conference of 1883 he was ordained an elder by Bishop Simpson. During the winter of 1891 he was stricken down in the midst of his revival work with the la grippe, from which he never recovered, and he was compelled from failing health to take a supernumerary relation last fall. Soon a malignant form of bronchitis set in, which, with chronic liver trouble contracted in the army, made his case hopeless, and after a hard struggle of four months the weary wheels of life stood still, and his triumphant spirit went home to God. During his illness his faith never faltered, and when asked by the writer for a final testimony, he said with an unearthly gleam of light in his eyes: "You know that I have fought a hard battle; but I have conquered, and I now wait for the summons home." In his closing hours the Master whom he served did not forsake him, and in holy triumph he sang, "My heavenly home is bright and fair." But four months before the family was called to mourn the loss of the eldest son, Lewis, who died in the full hope of immortal life. The funeral of Bro. Smith was held in the Asbury Church, Mt. Pleasant, and was attended by a large concourse of sorrowing friends, with the McFarland Post, G. A. R., and many of the members of the Conference. His pastor, Rev. W. G. Thorn, took charge of the services. Drs. Stafford and Siberts, Professors Adams and Heppe, and Revs. T. J. Myers and Powelson acted as pall bearers, and the writer, a life-long friend and yoke-fellow, preached the funeral sermon. Then he was laid away in the beautiful cemetery at Mt. Pleasant, with the honors of war by the G. A. R.

REV. JOHN ORR.

Rev. John Orr was born near Newark, Ohio, October 20, 1817, and died at Havelock, Neb., February 2, 1893, and was brought to Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, for burial, where his wife was interred about five years ago. He was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1847, and the same year received license as a local preacher. In 1855 he came to Iowa and settled on a farm in Henry county, and it was not long until his bright christian experience and earnest zeal in the cause of Christ began to attract the attention of those around him. In 1859 he was received into the Iowa Annual Conference, and appointed to Rome Circuit. In 1860 he was sent to the Crawfordsville Circuit, with Rev. Peter F. Holtzinger as his colleague. While on this circuit the war broke out, and he assisted in raising a company of volunteers, and was commissioned as First Lieutenant in Company I, of the 25th Regiment of Iowa Volunteers. While connected with the army and subjected to the temptations and trials of camp life, he never failed to exhibit in all its grandeur the double character of a soldier of his country and of the cross; and while many seemed to yield to the force of circumstances and in a measure lose their hold of religion, he appeared to grow stronger in his religious integrity, and to become more and more absorbed in the things of the great hereafter. As a citizen he was intensely loyal to his country; as a soldier he was brave and courageous; as a christian he was true and faithful, and as a minister he was tireless in seeking to win souls to Christ.

His sermons and exhortations were accompanied with the demonstration of the power of the Holy Spirit. Those charges to which he was sent from time to time appeared to take on new life at his coming; new churches were built, neglected communities visited, societies organized, congregations gathered and souls converted. Before his powerful appeals the most hardened sinners were often made to tremble, and the cold and formal professor was alarmed because of his spiritual deadness. On such occasions

"Truth from his lips prevails with double sway,
And fools who came to mock remained to pray."

Indeed, his whole soul was set on saving others; a selfish thought was allowed no place in his mind, and he cared nothing for promotion, for "he was more bent to raise the wretched than to rise himself."

During his last days he was an active and enthusiastic prohibitionist. He had always been a staunch advocate of temperance; but when he came to understand the diabolical combinations that were being formed by the traffic in liquor, and to consider the desolation that must necessarily come to the home and country on that account, his great soul was stirred to its profoundest depth, and the same spirit that prompted him to go into the army and help to put down the slaveholder's rebellion compelled him to once more unsheathe his sword and swear eternal hostility to the trade of the rumseller. He saw with a clear vision the coming conflict that is yet destined to shake this nation to its center, and, anxious for the fray, he took a bold and fearless stand as a champion of prohibition. By some he was regarded as an enthusiast on the subject; but the time is not distant when men will be astonished, not so much at his enthusiasm as at their own lack of interest in this great movement, and their blindness in regard to the plans and purposes of the liquor power.

But Brother John Orr has gone to his rest. Having fought a good fight, finished his course and kept the faith even unto the end, he has received the crown of the victor, which shall forever sit gracefully upon his brow. His mortal tenement was borne to its last resting-place on earth, in the Forest Home Cemetery at Mt. Pleasant, by some of those who had fought by his side in the army of the union during the great rebellion, and there awaits the resurrection of the just at the last day.

THOMAS E. CORKHILL.

MRS. REV. E. L. SCHREINER.

Martha A. Robinson was born at Bloomington, Indiana, October 19, 1847. She came with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Robinson, to Ottumwa, Iowa, in the fall of 1857, and again moved with them to Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, in the fall of 1860. Here she resided until her marriage with Rev. E. L. Schreiner, July, 1869. She departed this life December 29, 1892, and her mortal remains were laid to rest in Forest Home Cemetery, in this city, December 31, 1892.

So closed another beautiful and lovable earthly life. In childhood she was characterized by that artless sincerity, thoughtfulness, tenderness and loving obedience that made her life a boon to the home and attractive to all who knew her. In womanhood her life was almost singularly earnest, straight-forward, unselfish and loving. She seemed to know no motives but the highest, purest, best. She possessed a naive quality of character that was a charm to those who knew her well.

In addition to acquiring a good education she gave much attention to music and painting. In these she delighted and was proficient; they were most congenial to her aesthetic nature.

She was converted in the spring of 1860, under the pastorate of Rev. I. A. Bradrick. The religion of Christ was "manna" to her soul, and permeated and dominated her character and life. She delighted in pious meditation, in reading the Scriptures, in daily communion with her Lord. She was active in christian and philanthropic work. Her life was truly adorned by the excellence of quiet usefulness. She presided over the home with sweetness, grace and love. She was most helpful in the pastoral work of her husband, everywhere gathering the people about her in strongest ties of confidence and love, directing and leading them forward in all church work.

During her tedious and discouraging illness she exhibited that unfaltering faith in the personal and loving providence of God that was at once a lesson and inspiration to all who came in contact with her. In full view of the approaching crisis of life or death, she was free from a disturbing thought. Having committed all to her Heavenly Father she awaited whatever result His will might dictate, not only with calm resignation, but with holy pleasure. Her last expression was in affirmation of the conscious sustaining and cheering presence of her Savior. A few moments later she gently and sweetly fell asleep in Jesus, and now, no doubt, her spirit is exulting in the kindlier clime of eternal glory, while the influence of her beautiful life remains to enrich this world. The dear ones, though sorrowing deeply over their loss, yet, in the memory of the life so full of richness of grace and love, were able to say in the midst of their sorrow, "The Lord gave and the Lord hath taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord."

J. W. McDONALD.

MRS. LOUISA DUNLAVEY.

Louisa Collins was born in the village of Stiles, Davis county, Iowa, June 1, 1854, and she fell asleep in Christ September 27, 1892, in the Methodist Episcopal parsonage at Amish, Iowa. June 19, 1881, she was united in marriage to Rev. D. S. Dunlavey, then of the St. Louis Conference, and shortly afterwards removed with her husband to Iowa Conference, and in our midst for ten years before her death she exemplified ideally the character of a pastor's helpmate. Converted when only nine years old, under the ministry of Rev. J. M. Mann, her christian faith and character grew with her growth, strengthened with her strength—a shining light, shining more and more until merged into the perfect light of the presence of Christ beyond the tomb.

Her womanly tact, her resignation under sorrow, and patience in long-protracted and painful invalidism, her wonderful christian experience, her helpfulness, and the consistency of her whole life, made her a woman much beloved by the people of every charge to which her husband was called, and makes her loss a blow heavy to the church, heavier to her friends who knew her well, and heaviest of all to him who shared the trials and holy triumphs of a decade with her in the active ministry. Much more might be said. To those who knew her it would be unnecessary; to others empty words. Her name and record are in the Lamb's Book of Life. "She hath done what she could," and "her works do follow her."

A. E. BURIFF.

MRS. MARY ANN HOUSEL.

Mrs. Mary Ann Housel, widow of the late Rev. Peter F. Holtzinger, was born in Northumberland county, Pennsylvania, September 30, 1820, and died at Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, December 20, 1892.

At the early age of thirteen she became a christian and united with our church. Being naturally of a benevolent turn of mind, she found, on becoming the wife of a minister, which was on August 22, 1843, an ample field for the exercise of her desire to relieve the wants and lessen the sufferings of all with whom she met. As a true and faithful wife she cheerfully shared with her husband the toils, privations and sufferings of the itinerancy for many years. Although her family, like those of many other itinerants, has been at times in very straitened circumstances, yet she, like the widow of Zarephtha, has been known to divide the last morsel with the needy, and to trust in the Lord that the oil should not waste nor the meal fail. As a member of the church she was always in her place. Having little regard as to whether it was rain or sunshine, when the hour for worship came she would be seen wending her way to the house of God. Having been trained in the school of early Methodism, she had little sympathy with choir or instruments of music in the sanctuary, but she believed that all should join in the public praise of God. She was not evanescent in her religious experience, but had a steady, onward movement from her conversion until the Master said to her, "It is enough—come up higher." Her illness, which was from paralysis, was brief. In only a few hours her spirit took its flight to join her sainted companion in the rest that remains for the people of God.

"Oh, home to-night, yes home to-night,
Thru' the pearly gate and the open door.
Some happy feet on the golden street,
Are entering now to go out no more;
For the work is done, and the rest begun,
And the training time is forever past;
And the home of rest, in the mansions blest,
Is safely, joyously reached at last.

Oh, the love and light in that home to-night,
Oh, the songs of bliss and the harps of gold.
Oh, the glory shed on the now crowned head:
Oh, the telling of love that can ne'er be told.
Oh, the welcome that waits in the shining gates,
For those who are following far, yet near;
When all shall meet at his glorious feet
In the light and love of His home so dear."

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

WHEREAS, We accept the Sabbath as Heaven's boon to toiling man, and regard its observance as essential to man's physical, mental and moral well-being; and,

WHEREAS, God has commanded us to reverence the Sabbath and keep it holy;

Resolved, 1st, That we deplore the inappreciation of this boon, and the violation of this command by unnecessary traffic, travel, sports and devices, whereby its sanctity is destroyed.

2d, That it is exceedingly gratifying to us, in common with all lovers of God's holy day, that the recent discussion throughout the nation of the question of Sunday opening of the Columbian Exposition developed such a majority sentiment against such desecration as to compel the directors to recede from their former position, and to order the closing of the gates on the Lord's day: and we deplore that travesty upon justice, which, notwithstanding the enactment of Congress and the standing protest of millions of our citizens, persists in ordering that the gates be kept open on that day.

3d, That we will seek, by preaching upon this subject and by personal influence, to put down everything which has a tendency to diminish the sanctity of the Lord's day.

4th. That we have listened with pleasure and profit to the address of Mrs. E. H. Slocum, secretary of the Iowa Sabbath Association, and that we heartily commend this Association and its benevolent work to the sympathy and support of our people.

STATE OF THE CHURCH.

Your committee on State of the Church would respectfully report that we find the following facts:

1. That the church is as much, if not more, than ever devoted to the spread of the gospel, the administration of its ordinances, and the salvation of sinners and the building up of believers in the faith of Jesus Christ.
2. That in its work of saving men and evangelizing the world it is becoming more willing, determined and skillful in the use of all the means of grace and methods of church work than it ever has been before.
3. That the church is more and more awakening to the fact that all political, patriotic or legal actions are freighted with tremendous moral significance, and that therefore it behooves the church, as an organization existing for the moral improvement of mankind, to take larger interest in patriotic, political and legal movements than it has done heretofore.
4. That the church is entering on a larger recognition of its relations and usefulness to the children and youth of the world, and that the scheme of redemption through Christ is both remedial and preventive of sin.
5. That the organization of young people known as the Epworth League in the church is affecting the condition of the church for good in a manner and to a degree not anticipated by any, and that there is throughout the church great rejoicing for the educational and training force brought to the church through the league.

6. That there is yet great need for the baptism of the Holy Spirit on the ministry and membership, and that the church needs to grasp and use all its privileges in holy living, so that the doctrine of "holiness to the Lord" may be followed to its logical results in the church and individual.

7. We find also the state of the church to be affected deleteriously by a pernicious newspaper habit, many members reading only the poorest, cheapest and most secular papers, to the utter neglect of all religious papers.

8. But with all, the Church is advancing, warring against the world, the flesh and the devil, saving the souls of millions, and its warfare means no surrender to sin, Satan, or the saloon.

9. That the attitude and trend of the church is one of determined hostility to all forms of vice, evil and crime; and that its whole moral momentum is opposed to the perfidious pretensions of wickedness in high or low places.

E. J. PIKE,
H. F. PUGH,
W. F. MAIR.

STATE OF THE COUNTRY.

Your committee on the State of the Country beg leave to report as follows:

1. That we gratefully acknowledge the blessing of Almighty God in keeping our nation from internal strife and at peace with all the world; and with joy we herald the glad dawn of perpetual peace when arbitration will be accepted as the solution of all international controversies.

2. That we rejoice in the great awakening of educational discussion and in the resultant increase of influence and efficiency to the public school system of our country, and we insist upon the maintenance of its integrity as against all sectarian alliances.

3. That we deplore the growing discord between the forces of capital and labor; we emphasize the importance of legal enactment for the protection of those for whom neither wealth, station, nor age has provided a means of defense; but we recognize in the principles of the "Sermon on the Mount" the final solution of the industrial problem.

4. That in the present financial distress we recognize an occasion for calm reliance on God and firm adherence to the principles of Christian fellowship, and we believe that this will materially aid in restoring confidence and vigor to the business of the country. We urge the adoption of such valid expedients of relief as Christian fellowship and sound economy may suggest.

5. That we find great promise to our nation in the presence within its borders of the greatest international exhibition of history, in the vast material resources of our country there evidenced, and in the successful appliances of art and science there portrayed; but we especially delight in the forces for intellectual and moral growth implied in these exhibits.

6. In our own state we are confronted by a situation which is full of menace. The prohibition policy of the state is in peril. The license fallacy seems to rule the hour. The threatened return of the saloon to our peaceful and prosperous communities challenges every public and private virtue. The church can be no party to a compromise in this contest. While we do not presume to direct the political affiliations of our people, we firmly adhere to the repeated declaration of our General Conference, that the liquor traffic "can never be legalized without sin." We deprecate any movement which looks like surrender. Three times in the history of this commonwealth the sovereign people have pronounced in favor of prohibition as the settled policy of the state. Twice has their will been thwarted by cowardly compromise. It is now no time to pull down our flag. Timidity has no place with those who fear God. Let cowards go to the rear. We are pledged to eternal enmity to the liquor power. We cannot surrender our convictions to meet the demands of party expediency. Conscience must rule caucus. We have no call to "regulate" any evil in this world. Our commission does not so read. Our King came "to destroy the works of the devil." We are His servants. Extermination is our motto. Here we stand; we can do no otherwise and be true to righteousness, to conscience and to God. We call on all our people to be alike true, and not "to contribute by voice, vote or influence to the perpetuation and protection of the liquor traffic."

7. That we are unalterably opposed to that outrageous, inhuman and vindictive practice known as mob law. Such a fiendish human passion that can rob the law of its right, and punish by methods of torture most satanic a victim, either innocent or guilty of whatever crime, we unsparingly condemn. Outrages of this sort are a crime against society, a menace to our safety and an insult to our citizens, our laws and our religion. The rational processes of law, however tedious, expensive, or even unfair, are never to be given over to the audacious madness of a mob, however swift the punishment or atrocious the crime.

SUSTENTATION OF CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS.

The Board of Stewards of the Iowa Conference, to whom was referred the question of a plan for the sustentation of conference claimants, would report as follows:

After having had the subject before us for the past year, it is our mature judgment that no better plan has yet been devised than that known as the New York East Conference Plan; and, with one slight modification which will appear in the reading, we recommend its adoption as follows:

I. COLLECTION.

Each congregation shall observe a Sunday, to be known as Veterans' Day, upon which the pastor shall present this cause to the members of the church, and emphasize their obligations to the conference claimants. A collection shall be taken in the public congregation for the support of conference claimants, separate from every other interest.

II. DISTRIBUTION.

All monies received for annual distribution in aid of the support of conference claimants shall be divided into two sums; the first, consisting of 75 per cent. of the whole, shall be called the annuity fund; the second, consisting of 25 per cent of the whole, shall be called the necessitous fund. All superannuated ministers, the widows and children under fifteen years of age of deceased ministers, shall be conference claimants, unless the claim be voluntarily relinquished.

The annuity fund shall be divided among the claimants upon the following basis: Each minister shall receive annually ten dollars for each year of his effective service; each widow shall receive one-half her husband's claim; each child shall receive one-fifth its father's claim. These claims shall be paid pro rata from the monies in hand.

The necessitous fund shall be divided among the claimants, whether superannuates, widows or children, whose annuities are insufficient for their needs, in such proportion as the committee on conference claimants may deem equitable.

The gross allowance to each claimant from the above funds shall be reported to, and approved by the annual conference.

WHEREAS, the carrying out of this plan will require an increased income for the support of conference claimants; therefore,

Resolved, That each member of the conference, except those who are superannuated, will be expected to contribute at least five dollars annually to the above funds.

J. B. HILL, Chairman.
E. L. SCHREINER, Secretary.

WILSON'S RESOLUTION.

The Board of Stewards, to whom was referred the inquiry concerning the meaning of the last resolution of their report on the sustentation of superannuates, report that it is a voluntary matter, but of so great importance that it is confidently expected and believed that every effective and supernumerary member of the Conference, on the grounds of self-interest and benevolence, will comply with it.

J. B. HILL, President.
E. L. SCHREINER, Secretary.

SUSTENTATION PLAN SUBSCRIPTION.

Resolved, That the Board of Stewards be requested to keep an accurate account of all money paid to them by the members of this Conference, according to the sustentation plan adopted by the Conference, and report the same in open Conference at its next annual session; said money to be paid to the treasurer of the Board of Stewards, U. B. Smith.

SUNDAY SCHOOL UNION AND TRACT SOCIETY.

WHEREAS, Through the blessing of God the Sunday School Union and Tract Society have rendered efficient service to the church in qualifying many thousands of children and youths for lives of usefulness, and furnishing incitements thereto, and inasmuch as there is still an increased demand for these lines of work; therefore,

Resolved, That we pledge ourselves to give to these two societies our hearty co-operation, and will try to raise our apportionment for each of them, and ask that the amount of $575.00 be apportioned by the presiding elders for these objects to the several charges of the Conference.

W. E. PATTERSON, President.
J. W. LEWIS, Secretary.

SUBSCRIPTIONS FOR CONFERENCE MINUTES.

Your committee beg leave to report that after a canvass of each district there has been received $74.00 in advance payment for 740 copies of the Conference minutes. A large majority of the preachers guarantee to pay their share of the minutes within thirty days after their receipt, but can not pay for them now.

M. J. PUSEY, Chairman.

TEMPERANCE.

Your committee on Temperance beg leave to report:—

The committee, after careful and prayerful consideration to the subject submitted to them, beg leave to submit the following:

We rejoice that our church has kept fully abreast with the most advanced churches on this great question of the day, and we are proud to be citizens of a state that for the last decade has made the prohibition of the liquor traffic a part of her statutory law.

In opposition to all contrary statements we maintain that prohibition has been of inestimable value to Iowa in the banishment of the saloon from the larger portion of the state, and would have been in every community had an honest and persistent effort been made for its enforcement; therefore be it

Resolved 1st, That we are as much as ever convinced that the only method of dealing with the saloon and liquor traffic is prohibition pure and simple.

Resolved 2d, We deplore and condemn the policy pursued by some of the cities of our state, and we hold the authority of the state to be supreme, and consider it rebellion for any municipality to set at naught any law of the state.

Resolved 3d, That we believe that all laws should be uniform in their operation and universal in requirement, and that it would be bad policy and poor government to legislate and enact one set of laws for one part of the state and a different law for another part of it.

Resolved 4th, That it is our abiding conviction that there is no form in which the liquor traffic can be legalized without sin; so that we protest and refuse to be bound by any political platform that proposes the return of the legalized saloon to any city or hamlet in our commonwealth; and that we are not in favor of banishing the saloon from one community and fastening it upon another. "For what fellowship hath light with darkness, or what concord hath Christ with Belial?"

Resolved 5th, That we will use all lawful means and influences to secure the election of such executive and members of General Assembly as will pledge themselves against any backward movement on this great question, so dear to the hearts of all who love home and country, and to defeat such candidates as are in favor of any form of licensing the liquor traffic.

Resolved 6th, That all admission or assumption made by any political platform that prohibition cannot be enforced in any locality of the state is utterly untrue and false, and opposed to the dignity of christian civilization; and that it is utterly inconsistent for any christian to vote for the legalizing of sin; and that we stand upon the position taken by our church on this great question.

Resolved 7th, That in the murder of Dr. Haddock, and more especially in the late murderous attempt of the liquor traffic upon the homes and lives of our friends in Muscatine, we see a faint intimation of the real character of this monster iniquity that has grown gray in the work of wrecking homes and ruining souls, and that we hear in these outrages the voice of God calling upon us to press forward with intensified purpose in the work of extermination.

Resolved 8th, That we appeal to God for the rectitude of our purpose, and the defense of our homes and commonwealth; and we will not desist from our opposition until this standing menace to home, to country, to church and the best interests of humanity be driven from the face of the earth.

I. P. TETER, Chairman,
H. C. MILLICE, Secretary,

TOBACCO.

The Committee on Tobacco respectfully present the following report:

Resolved, 1. That the use of tobacco in any form is a useless, needless self-indulgence and a filthy habit, and therefore sinful and a hindrance to the work of grace in the heart.

2. That in view of the very deleterious effects of tobacco upon the health of the youth of our land, we urge upon the members of the Iowa Annual Conference to faithfully set before their people the danger that besets their boys from the use of this narcotic.

3. That any person, after having taken a vow before the Bishop, and in the presence of an Annual Conference, to abstain from the use of tobacco, and thereafter indulging in the use of it, shall be dealt with according to the discipline.

VISITORS TO I. W. U.

The conference visitors to the I. W. U. for the current year would report that we were courteously received by the faculty and trustees, and accorded every proper privilege.

We were impressed with the harmony, pleasant spirit and frankness of the meetings of the Board of Trustees, and their earnest desire to promote the interests of the University.

Our observations in relation to the buildings, campus, museum, library, society halls, recitation rooms, offices, laboratory, etc., lead to the conclusion that there are ample provisions to fulfill all promises of the institution as to educational facilities.

The Faculty, in ability and winning qualities, is worthy of the confidence of all. The management of the institution may be safely commended to our people. We would recommend that the institution be more fully received into the confidence and sympathies of pastors and people, and that we make continuous effort at all suitable times to promote its financial prosperity, and fill its halls with students.

WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

To the Iowa Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church :

Your Committee on the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society beg leave to report:

WHEREAS, No nation can reach a high degree of christian civilization until the mothers of the nation are christianized; and

WHEREAS, In some of the most important missionary fields of our church the social customs of the people are such that the women can be reached only by women; and

WHEREAS, In the recent reported advances made by our church in foreign fields none of our forces have been more potent for good than the missionaries of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society; therefore,

Resolved, 1st, That we recognize in the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society a Heaven-inspired movement, which is of great importance to us in the pastorate, in creating sympathy for and conveying intelligence concerning the missionary operations of our church.

Resolved, 2d, That we as pastors pledge to the representatives of this society, not merely toleration, but cheerful and hearty co-operation.

E. C. BROOKS,
A. B. HIGHTSHOE,
J. HANKS,
W. M. ERSKINE,
G. FILMER.

WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Inasmuch as the Woman's Home Missionary Society has, under divine direction, proven itself so effective in the relief, education and salvation of the needy and neglected in our own home land, be it therefore

Resolved, That each individual society, and the members of this Conference, as well as the entire membership of the Methodist Episcopal Church, should aid and encourage this society in its various efforts for the promotion of its blessed work.

J. C. WILLITS, President,
W. S. GARDNER, Secretary.

WESLEY HOSPITAL.

Your committee to whom was referred the matter pertaining to Wesley Hospital, located in Chicago, would respectfully report that we recommend:

1. That we join ourselves with the patronizing Conferences for the support and advantage of said institution.

2. That we undertake this next Conference year the support of one bed.

3. That we recommend that the pastor of the First M. E. Church, of Ottumwa, be the agent through whom we will make payment of monies raised for the Hospital.

4. That we recommend the nomination of Rev. I. O. Kemble and Bro. Geo. Haw as trustees of the Hospital.

D. C. SMITH,
E. J. PIKE.

JUBILEE SERVICES.

TO THE IOWA ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH:—

Dear Brethren: Your committee appointed to report to your Reverend body on the Jubilee Services for the session of 1893, would, in addition to their report on that subject already published, respectfully submit to you the following :

WHEREAS, The Iowa Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church was first organized in the one hundredth year after the meeting of Wesley's first conference ; to-wit, on the 14th day of August, 1844 ; so that in August, 1894, the fiftieth year of its history will expire ; and

WHEREAS, Several years have elapsed since we have met in a State Convention ; and

WHEREAS, further, It is fitting that so important an event should be properly observed by all the Methodists of Iowa, and also desirable that they should consider together the great problems of christian evangelism, education and moral reform and benevolence that are constantly presenting themselves before the church in this state ; therefore Resolved 1st, That we recommend to the several Annual Conferences of the church, existing in whole or in part in Iowa, the holding at a time to include the same week in August, 1894, in which occurred the first session of this Conference in 1844, an Iowa Jubilee State Methodist Convention, at such point as may hereafter be agreed upon for the same.

Resolved 2d, That each of such Conferences in the American work be requested and invited through the Secretary of this Conference, to appoint two ministers and two laymen, with alternates ; and each foreign speaking Conference therein one minister and one layman, with alternates, to form, with those of the Iowa Conference, a Committee of Arrangements, to fix the place, prepare a program and perform such other duties as may be necessary for the success of said Convention.

Resolved 3d, That Rev. W. F. Cowles, D. D. and Rev. J. C. W. Coxe, D. D., with Bros. John Mahin and John S. Woolson, and Rev. T. E. Corkhill and Bro. D. H. Emery as alternates, be appointed from the Iowa Conference to serve on the said Committee of Arrangements.

Resolved 4th, That Bro. W. F. Cowles, D. D., be, and he hereby is appointed to act as temporary chairman of said Committee of Arrangements, with authority to call a meeting of said committee, at some suitable time in his discretion, in the city of Des Moines, Iowa.

Resolved 5th, That the Secretary of this Conference is hereby instructed to forward a copy of these resolutions to the Secretary of each of the Annual Conferences included in this invitation, with the request that such Secretary shall return to him, for the use of the temporary chairman herein provided for, a complete list of the members of said committee appointed from his Conference, with their post office address.

Respectfully submitted,

E. H. WARING,
J. C. W. COXE,
THOS. E. CORKHILL,
W. F. COWLES,

ABSTRACT OF JUBILEE EXERCISES.

SEMI-CENTENNIAL OF THE IOWA ANNUAL CONFERENCE AND THE IOWA WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY, SEPTEMBER 9, 1893.

At the services referred to, in accordance with the previous action of the Conference, the following exercises were had:

SATURDAY MORNING, September 9, 1893.

8-8:30. Song and prayer service, led by Rev. Michael See.

Following that service were addresses, viz.: "Recollections of the Conference of 1844," by Rev. J. B. Hardy; "A Half Century of Progress," by Rev. E. H. Waring; "The Overflow in Iowa and Beyond," by Rev. M. Bamford, and the "The Iowa Conference and the Union," by Rev. W. G. Wilson.

During these exercises there was sung the

THANKSGIVING HYMN,

BY REV. W. P. STODDARD.

"O give thanks unto the Lord, for He is good, for His mercy endureth forever."

(Tune, "Migdol.")

Eternal God, in every clime
Men praise, o'er all, thy name sublime.
To-day, for mercies rich and free,
We, too, would render thanks to Thee.

Through half a hundred glorious years,
In holy feast and joyous tears,
We've seen thy blessed face to shine—
We know thy power and love divine.

This day thy praise in chapel walls,
Thy grace and power in college halls,
We joyous sing, O Holy One,
For blessings to our fathers shown.

O may thy mercies ever new
Our love inspire, our hearts renew,
Till, daily growing in thy grace,
We stand "approved" before thy face.

In the afternoon, after prayer by Rev. A. Robinson, the addresses delivered were as follows: "The Women Graduates of the Iowa Wesleyan University," by Mrs. G. W. Byrkit; "The Alumni of the University," by Mrs. Belle Mansfield; "The Conference and Moral Reform," by Rev. E. L. Schreiner; "The Women of the Conference," by Mrs. Dennis Murphy, and "Our Honored Dead," by Rev. I. P. Teter.

In the evening, after prayer by Rev. R. B. Allender, the addresses were as follows: "The Work among the Children and Youth," by Rev. J. C. W. Coxe; "The Church Finances, Past and Present," by Rev. C. W. Shepherd, and "The Work Before Us," by Rev. W. R. Stryker.

The services were largely attended, and the addresses of great interest.

The following is an abstract of the statistics of the Conference, as given in the address of Rev. E. H. Waring: Number of counties in the Iowa Conference equal to 17; average number in the other Conferences in Iowa equal to 28; average excess over Iowa Conference, 11 counties; population in territory of Iowa Conference about 384,000; average of the other Conferences in Iowa, 509,000; average excess over Iowa Conference, 125,000.

There were in the lay membership in 1844, including 60 local preachers and 12 "colored," 5,463 members in Iowa. In 1855 there were 22,987 members. Of these, in 1856, there were set off to the Upper Iowa and Kansas and Nebraska Conferences 8,677, leaving 14,412. By 1859 these had increased to 25,319. Of these the Western Iowa and Des Moines Conferences took, in all, 8,170; leaving 15,895. These have again multiplied until in 1892 there was reported a total of 26,738.

The total increase in the present territory of the Iowa Conference, from 1844 to 1892 inclusive, has been 3 districts, 108 pastoral charges, 140 traveling and 82 local preachers, and 22,696 members.

Comparative progress of the church and population in Iowa from 1840 to 1850:

Increase of population 149,102; per cent of increase 9,655.

Increase in M. E. Church 9,655; per cent of increase 613.

Comparative progress of the M. E. Church and the population in the Conference territory from 1850 to 1990:

*Decrease.

The continuous roll of the Conference shows that ninety-two preachers of the Conference have come in within the last ten years. But four of the original members remain in the itinerancy, viz.: Rev. J. B. Hardy, of the Iowa, Rev. S. W. Ingham, of the Upper Iowa, Rev. J. G. Whitford, of the Wisconsin, and Rev. Wm. Hulbert, of the California Conference. And at least twenty-three are dead. Of the last session of the undivided Conference, held at Keokuk, under Bishop Simpson, in 1855, but fourteen remain on our roll, of whom but one, Bro. Teter, is effective. Eleven others are in other conferences, and at least fifty-eight of its 158 preachers are dead. And of the secretaries of the Conference prior to 1893, viz: H. W. Reed, Joseph Brooks, Landon Taylor, J. G. Dimmitt, Michael H. Hare, Elias L. Briggs, E H. Waring and G. N. Power, all are dead but Bro. Waring. The two last named secretaries served each in succession seventeen years, or together thirty-four years. The greatest number of preachers received in any one year was in 1855, when forty-seven were enrolled; the least number in 1861, when one, Rev. Banner Mark, came in by transfer. While Bro. Hardy is the sole survivor in the Conference of the session of 1844, owing to a transfer which broke his record, he gives place to Rev. Michael See, as the longest enrolled, he having entered in 1845.

NOTE.—There were paid to General Conference expenses $1.00 from Lovilia and $2.00 from Unionville, Ottumwa District. The missionary collection from Bloomfield Church should be $422, instead of $322.

ERRATA.—The total membership of Burlington District is 4.659, and of Oskaloosa District is 4,558, making the total membership for 1893 25,897, instead of 25,998; and the increase 753, instead of 854. In the current expense column in the Keokuk District the 2 that belongs before the 25 in Centerville has been placed before the 28 in Bloomfield Circuit.
